Attachments: 11.09.08 - tick tock Timeline of Crisis in Libya.docx

Yeah, it's the tick tock you did. We asked Amira for it, what she sent us is attached.

I'll make sure BHL gets the article.

Generally though, she's making too much of this interview. The guy is bringing a handcam. It's basically a home movie.

Also, PIR, she wants BHL to get a copy of the Warrick article. Can you pass off?

Adding Lona, Monica and Rob who have my scheduling records. What bothers me is that S/P prepared the timeline but it doesn't include much of what I did. So where did they get info? This is example of my continuing concern that we don't have our records ready.

I understand there is one ethnic minority woman selected for the civil society session from the group we are funding. We've not had much role in the process so I don't know more since bringing to EAP's attention.

As for Bonn, I'm working with Huma. We'll figure out how to maximize the opportunity.

Just got an email from Claudia Kennedy that she'll participate in our women in public service event.

Subject: Burma, etc

I wanted to mention a few things to you as there is travel ahead and there won't be a chance.

Your trip to Burma, in addition to the promise of change and its historic aspects, will be a great opportunity for the women of Burma. It will be a balancing act between the geo-political implications of the thaw and the on-going human rights issues. There will be much attention on you and Aung San Suu Kyi. She for the symbol of democracy that she has been and you for the human rights/women's rights symbol that you have been. As the keeper of your flame, I am only too aware of all the times over the years that you have been a voice for ASSK. I remember your signing the Beijing poster to ASSK for Albright to take to her right after the conference in 1995!

A few years back, you were on the stage at Vital Voices when we honored the Burmese women and ran the drum of over 100 names of women imprisoned there, and then last year VV honored ASSK. In the interview with her, she mentioned you and what you have represented to her several times. Moreover, she agreed to the interview because of your association with VV. So, it's no surprise for all of this, that I'm inundated with messages from the Nobel women, offices of women Senators, Mrs. Bush to the myriad NGOs wishing you well on your journey and urging you not to forget the women. Hopefully, when you're back we can do some kind of response based on your experience.

The whole minorities issue is that much worse because rape has been used repeatedly as a tool in the oppression and this point especially the Nobel women asked to be raised.

Also, you should know that our office has been funding a coalition of women's groups in Burma for leadership in civil society building. They have already trained several hundred women and the work is continuing. The grant was for $100k (a sizeable amount for Burma) and is being done through the embassy. I've told Kurt and company about the women and I'm hoping that some will be included in your civil society meeting. Our belief has been that progress needs to happen and women will be key.

Secondly, Bonn

In the last days we've had it confirmed that, in addition to 1/2 the civil society delegation, 32% of the official Afghan delegation will be comprised of women, including some of the best and including an opposition parliamentarian. Moreover, we also learned that the health results there are improving significantly, including a huge drop in maternal mortality! Minister Dalil (whom you know) will be coming to Bonn. Since you have been instrumental in support to lower the maternal mortality rates and made it an issue at the Kabul conference, I hope you will be able to do a side event at the Bonn conference with Minister Dalil to spotlight the progress as well as a brief meeting with the Afghan women's delegation.

Third, Women and Public Service (aka "Seven Sisters").

As you know, we've been partnering with Farah's office on this and June Shih has been dedicated to the project full time. We now have some excellent deliverables so the event will have wind at its back to go forward. This includes a program that will be done with Asia University for Women, so some of the young women in the region will be inspired to go into public service. We are still hoping to pull in non-7 Sisters schools to make commitments, like Scripps, Spellman, etc. They are interested and we are working on that.

We also have a growing roster of impressive women coming, including a message yesterday from the President of Kosovo. (She would also like to have a bilat with you when she is here). I'm thrilled that Christine Lagarde has accepted (she was fabulous at APEC/SF), and we are hoping that you will be able to work the schedule so you and she will be able to share the stage.

Fourth, the National Action Plan

You had asked Anita on Monday where things stood with DOD and they are going forward (and thanks for raising with Panetta).

[REDACTED]

We all agree that if you could speak earlier in the day on the 16th in addition to your ICG evening remarks, it would give the message its due and accommodate the broader community which has a stake in this.

A happy Thanksgiving to all the Clintons. I will hope to see you fleetingly in Busan.

tomorrow, we are ok, just lots of bilats. osce thrilled you are coming at all even though you are not spending all day there.

calmy-rey has switched on us again. she wont be in geneva so you will see her in vilnius tomorrow for the farewell call.

we are adding more bilats to brussels including davutoglu and if we have time the new Finnish and new Latvian FM who you have also not had a bilat with.

for tomorrow night, dan only specifically mentioned bringing megan rooney and mike posner but is obviously fine with whatever you want. can be expanded to traveling team as well unless you want to also add the real expanded...donahoe, brimmer, beyer, countryman etc. i dont think you need to take all travelers out since you will likely end up with them tonite at the bed and breakfast.

there has been some nice feedback about cvc nytimes story yesterday.

i am going to send you latest draft of holiday card tonite to get your thoughts.

Hillary-

It was great to see you for a bit at Thanksgiving and hope we can find some time soon to catch up.

I am writing to ask if you'd be interested in speaking at the Truman National Security Project's annual conference from May 4th to the 6th? It is an incredible organization and network of our nation's young foreign and domestic policy leaders (I am a little biased as a Truman fellow). This group is filled with smart, pragmatic, and idealistic young leaders from across the nation and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to be a part of it. I think you will really enjoy getting to spend a little time with some of them.

I've attached a letter with more info from Rachel Kleinfeld, the CEO and founder, who I think you've met a few times before.

Hope your trip is going well and know that you make all of us so proud.

Love and best, Zach

Subject: FM Kazykhanov call sheet

B6

You have this call sheet but re-sending just in case.

The Secretary's Call Sheet for
Kazakhstan's Foreign Minister Yerzan Kazykhanov [kah-zee-KHAWH-nuff]

Purpose of Call: To support Kazakhstan's intent to hold open, transparent, and fair parliamentary elections January 15, and to welcome the decision to allow the national election to take place in Zhanaozen [zhah-NOW-zen], which remains under a state of emergency following December unrest.

B5

Background:

Elections: In accordance with Kazakhstan's Constitution, President Nazarbayev signed a decree November 15 to dissolve the lower house of parliament (Mazhilis) and to schedule elections for January 15. Nazarbayev announced in November that Kazakhstan needs a multiparty Mazhilis and a renewed government to accomplish wider modernization. This will be the first Mazhilis elections held under Kazakhstan's revised election code, which mandates representation for a second party if there are not at least two parties that exceed the required 7 percent threshold. The elections are expected to usher in Kazakhstan's first multiparty parliament.

Zhanaozen: At least 16 people died and over 100 were hospitalized due to unrest that began as authorities were preparing for a December 16 independence day celebration on the central square of the oil town of Zhanaozen. Both the government of Kazakhstan and an independent NGO eyewitness maintain that a group of protestors (possibly organized by overseas opposition groups), separate from the oil workers who have been on strike, started the violence. Additional violence claiming at least one life broke out on December 17 when protestors blocked several freight and passenger trains in the nearby village of Shetpe. President Nazarbayev declared a State of Emergency for Zhanaozen and established a commission headed by Deputy Prime Minister Shukeyev to investigate the incident and make recommendations to address underlying socio-economic factors. Although the situation has stabilized, the government extended the State of Emergency to January 31 and - consistent with the constitutional provision regarding regions where there is unrest - canceled the parliamentary (though not local) elections for that region, affecting 50,000 voters (out of 7 million or so). After A/S Blake and Amb. Fairfax urged reconsideration, President Nazarbayev announced January 9 that elections would take place nationwide on January 15, including Zhanaozen, a decision that was confirmed by the Constitutional Court January 11.

NDI: Ambassador Idrissov flagged in his January 11 discussion with Acting A/S Pyatt the Kazakh government's concerns about the activities of NDI and IRI, which he said were becoming "too active" in their engagement on social networking and "Arab Spring" type activities. He added that these concerns had been raised with Embassy Astana by the MFA; on January 11, Kazakh officials alleged to our DCM that the purpose of many U.S. policies in Kazakhstan, including support of organizations like NDI, is to foment revolution against the government. Pyatt told Idrissov that we welcomed the Kazakh government's commitment to transparency in the elections (and the investigation of the Zhanaozen events), but did not see anything irregular in the role/actions of NDI/IRI and urged them not to believe everything they read on the internet (local press propaganda often targets U.S. NGO activities in Central Asia). The Kazakh government may also be reacting to the activities of a former NDI local employee who has been active in opposition efforts but no longer has any connection with NDI. During a January 12 meeting with Kazykhanov, Ambassador Fairfax strongly refuted claims that NDI was engaged in improper or subversive activities. Kazykhanov expressed GOKZ support for NDI's work in Kazakhstan, and admitted that the Kazakh security services (and not the media) had been the real source of the accusations made against NDI to the MFA. Kazykhanov agreed to have Kazakh Ambassador Idrissov meet with NDI Director Wollack to discuss further any concerns. Kazakhstan has suffered several small bombings (including its first car bomb ever) in the past year that - in combination with unrest in the oil patch, as well as events in the Arab world and Russia - has made it particularly skittish about stability. President Nazarbayev said January 11 that he thinks countries that have experienced such "coups" have gone "backwards" 10-15 years economically. (Note: IRI left Kazakhstan last spring.)

I agree. But I usually don't know what's going on till much later. I only find out after something didn't go right. They spend a lot of time considering things amongst themselves, they should ask for guidance from you, jake, pir, toria, anyone who might know. I didn't know anything about this step thing but basically yes, if people aren't sure, they should just ask you. And they should give you heads up on things.

I will reiterate to everyone.

But not surprising. They spend hours talking about every issue to each other and you rather than asking me anything. There's a lot of wasted time and resulting frustration for me and them.

Another example: I did not know they talked to the Mexicans about not having a step in front of the podium. When I spoke this morning after Espinosa but before Calderone, the step was there and because no one gave me a heads up, I assumed it was there or them and used it even tho it felt awkward. I saw our team staring at me thruout the entire speech and when I asked Caroline why, she told me about the podium step and how upset they were I was standing on it. If I had known any of this, I would have pushed it away, but since I didn't, I assumed it was there for a reason.

Why won't they talk to me instead of making assumptions? So far. They've been minor, but I worry about what might be next.

Not sure about divinely inspired...but you are right.
Plus since there were half a dozen people on the email, how could ANYONE think you weren't going to find out about the shirt when everyone else was showing up in it today?! Baffling.

This is awful. I'm so sorry. They should have showed it to you. We didn't find out about the need to wear shirt till you got to Mexico. They sent me a picture and I said I hoped you didn't wear it cause it looked quite unattractive! but assumed they would discuss it with you. I should have confirmed they did. I will take responsibility and I am so so sorry. We will move forward with people knowing to tell you everything!
Got your preference for bilats which girls are executing.

So, here I sit in the meeting surrounded by every other person dressed in a white shirt provided by the Mexicans. Patricia is not wearing the exact style that all others are but her own white shirt. But, since no one ever told me about this, and instead assumed I didn't need to know, I had no idea about any of this until I just walked into the large meeting in front of the entire press corps and am wearing a green top. So, what's my answer when asked why I think I'm different than all my colleagues and why I'm dissing our hosts?

I am sick of people deciding what I should know rather than giving me the info so I can make a decision. This really annoys me and I told Monica I just didn't understand what she/they were doing. But, when we do the family photo, I will be the only person not in white.

RELEASE IN PART B5,

I'm so sorry I missed your call earlier. I think I fixed my ringer so it works now.

For tomorrow, aside from being sleep deprived...notes are:

- dav no longer serving breakfast, just a meeting. Told frank if he has any turkey specific points, he can walk from suite with you. Maybe you have him ride with you erdogan.
- speaking of, erdogan wants to meet at his palace. [redacted] but its because you are a "honored" guest. Same time, so its back and forth.
- shilpa will remind you about bulgaria pull-aside on margins tomorrow.
- rest of day ok. Little sensitivity about numbers for syria oppo mtg so kept it small with fred, jeff and jake.

B5

In other news:

- I doubt [redacted] mentions it to you but in case the american cyclist issue comes up. As you'll remember, he hit a woman accidently and [redacted] got involved. [redacted] helped get him through the legal proceedings so he's out of jail, got his passport back and travel ban has been lifted so he will leave the country soon. He has to make monetary compensation to the womans family.

B6

Also, since you will see Croatian FM tomorrow, want to follow up on the Dubrovnik Summit you asked about. As you know, its a european security summit taking place july 6/7. Last year bill burns went. [redacted] Not sure if you are considering it but so you have info.

Who's Brian?

So, to recap: I will fly from LA to Cabo Sunday, stay in that nice hotel Esperanza, do the bilats and get back to DC Monday night. Is that right?

Do Tues and Wed and Thurs morning in DC, and then leave right after the lunch, fly to Rio, get there 12 hours later (11 flying and lose an hour) speak on Friday and then leave for NY. Do we have hotel room in Rio to change,etc?

I told Cheryl we had to nail down specific time to speak or I'd get screwed by not being a head of state. She said only USUN could make that happen.

I will have to do video for Menendez event.

And do you have any idea about the schedule for the next week?

I'd like to get some idea so I can plan what else besides Finland, Latvia, and St. P'berg

Also, if I fly from LR to Boston, when will I see Nasser Judeh who's coming to see me?

Things are moving along ok. Cheryl wants to be involved in Rio but we will proceed with planning as we discussed. Doesn't make sense for both of us to be calling tom and brian.

Regardless rio can accomodate you  and that's what they are pushing for so you won't have to wait around till tuesday. And the rest of the week lona downloaded to you on so you know its doable.

Subject: Tomorrow

- you heard kurt and dan got stuck because of weather so they will be late tomorrow. They won't be with you for Noda but will make it for gemba
- you are scheduled to be in the entire opening session. Up to you if you want to get up and leave but we have nothing planned right now.
- hina is confirmed as a straight up 1 on 1. We still do camera spray at beginning.
- gemba lunch and press avail is in the same guest house it always is. He's very excited to be hosting you for lunch apparently.
- core group: we are hosting this, will have coffee/tea etc. There isn't a lot of time for it on schedule because other delegations have to break but I suspect it will go longer. Also, no verbal statements planned. We are issuing written statement.
- got your message about moving the civil society meeting to after meet and greet. We considered that but since timing conflicts with the afghan press conference and they are part of the press conference, it doesn't work. So you have 2 choices. Either keep things as is but have civil society in conference till its time to meet so they aren't waiting in hall. They are stepping out of conference all day to meet with foreign ministers and only 2 of them are participating in the conference. Second choice is to make change you want. We wait till they are done with press conf and meet with them at okura around 6 or 6:30pm. So you will be done with meet and greet at 4:30pm, come back to hotel and wait for them.

Today should be ok.

Just a warning, nairobi schedule has come together very very late. So as a result, there are the expected unknowns. We thought kibaki and odinga would be joint but they refused to do that so the day has ended up you shuttling from meeting to meeting. Everyone has asked for 30 min but we padded all meetings. Reminder the somalis are fasting so we aren't serving anything even though we host.

After all the discussion about election commission, its only 8 people between the 2 groups. When they met with post, both sides say they aren't in "crisis" mode so they all expected for this to be a cordial meeting contrary to reports AF gave us last week.

Sunday is Malawi. Banda meeting is set even though they continue to say no press avail. Still working on press since otherwise you have no press conf 2 days in a row. The feed the future event is not visually mind-blowing but its a successful program and you are giving the farmers a bull which is like giving them gold! Johnnie, who has been very laid back about canceling things on this trip has begged us to keep the girls camp glow event. Its quick, its apparently a big success story in malawi. You would spend 20 min at this school. Our advance apparently left the walk through in tears cause the girls were so emotional and inspiring.

South Africa is ok, I might need to update you on some issues later today but ok for now.

Istanbul is coming together. Pm confirmed. Dav too. and looks like gul might be surfacing for too. Fred Hof has concerns about selecting specific opposition group given how cairo opposition meeting this week. Thinks too sensitive. So we will come back to you when we agree. But maybe one meeting with syrian civil society including staff who work in syrian opposition support office. And one meeting with small group of refugees.

Will keep sending updates.

LIMASSOL, CYPRUS (AP) - A Swedish-Lebanese man has pleaded not guilty to charges he was planning an attack against Israeli citizens on the eastern Mediterranean island of Cyprus.

The eight charges read out in a Limassol court on Friday against 24-year-old Hossam Taleb Yaacoub include conspiracy and consent to commit a criminal offense and participation in a criminal organization by "carrying out missions in any part of the world, including the Cyprus Republic, against Israeli citizens."

Yaacoub originally faced 17 "terrorism and terrorism-related" charges according to police, but prosecutors last month dropped terrorism from the new charges.

Israel's prime minister has said that Yaacoub was a Hezbollah operative who used the same "modus operandi" as a suicide bomber who killed five Israeli tourists and a Bulgarian bus driver in Burgas, Bulgaria, in July.

Jake,

I truly do understand how difficult it is to have a private meeting with S. So, I am entirely realistic when I ask to see if you, Sylvia, and I might have a few minutes with her alone next week.

It is most likely that both she and I will be out of office before we meet again. It would give Sylvia and me the opportunity to express our views of the privilege of serving under her leadership.

It would also give Sylva and me the chance to tell how we might hope to be allied together in the future..

I know it will be hard to achieve but I thank you for trying.

Sam

I'd like to see Tamera this week either in the office or for dinner.

Also, I'd like to see if I can get Jane Harman, Ellen Tauscher and Dianne Feinstein together for dinner next week.

Inouye -- we offered two dates in June, neither of which he could do due to his travel and recess. His office told me directly that they would stand down on their request at that time. I will touch base with Dave Adams first thing Tuesday morning about this and set it up.

Spanta -- teed up for Thursday, I will lock in.

Thursday -- little plane is all set for AAFB to White Plains.

I just learned from a memo from EAP and H dated 8/24 that Sen Inouye requested mtg w me in a letter dated 5/12. I don't understand why I didn't know and why we didn't meet in the last three months. I should do so asap.

Is my mtg w Spanta set for 9/8?

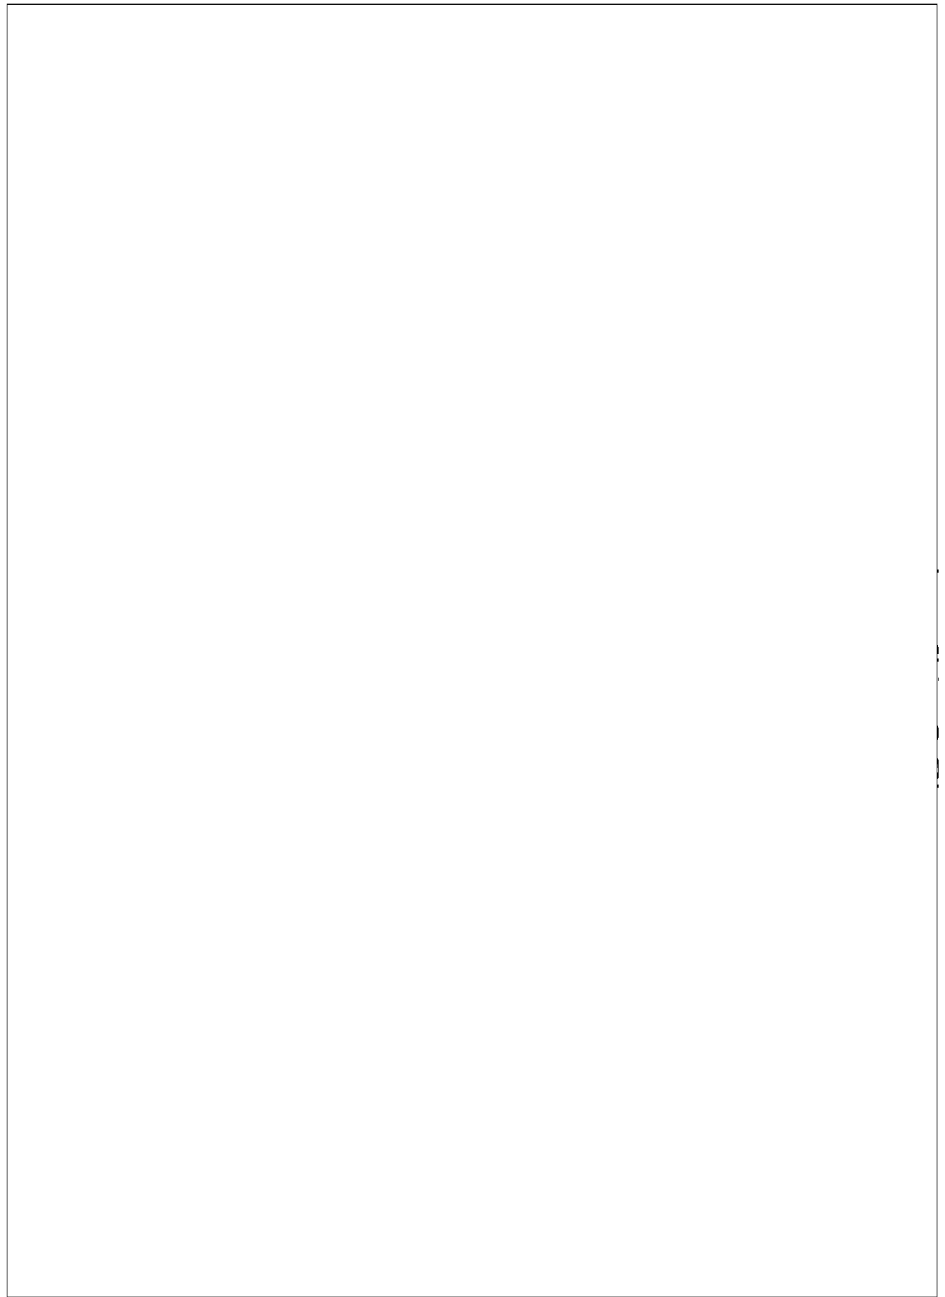

I think I should fly to White Plains Thursday night after the POTUS speech to be ready for Friday events in City. And since that's for official events the next day, I'd like to leave from Andrews.

Also,  What time is it on Saturday?

i am in touch with kati and gahl almost daily and they know the situation so this is factually incorrect esp since they wanted it on the 13th, and we offered the 15th.

they are anxious to send out invitations but as you know, we dont have a NATO schedule yet which means we cannot lock time. they have a commitment and a date. they will get a time as soon as we can get it for them. i encouraged them to email save the dates with the date and send follow up info as soon as they have it.
Hrc, you should not be worrying about this.

People shouldn't take guidance from Jake on this stuff. He has no idea what she wants on cards or paper. We specifically discussed in mtg last week and we have now done this for years.

My entire set of the briefing was on cards which makes no sense.

Of course! We only did cards to cover our bases / because Jake asked us to. Sorry for any confusion!

I assume she will bring her binder that she is working from today – I can't bring an extra copy of it over to Interior (unless it's pouched and all that). so I'll only have this morning's speech with me @ interior.

Sidney

As we discussed on the phone, the VMI Distinguished Diplomat Award for Secretary Clinton has gone "agley" in the matter of a mutually doable date for presentation in Lexington. Some 50 dates have been proposed. None were workable because of problems with her schedule. As I mentioned to you, the yearly cycle has resulted in the selection of General Jones, for this year, but this in no way supersedes her selection. They await the time when they can honor her. If they have to wait until she leaves office, they will gladly do that.

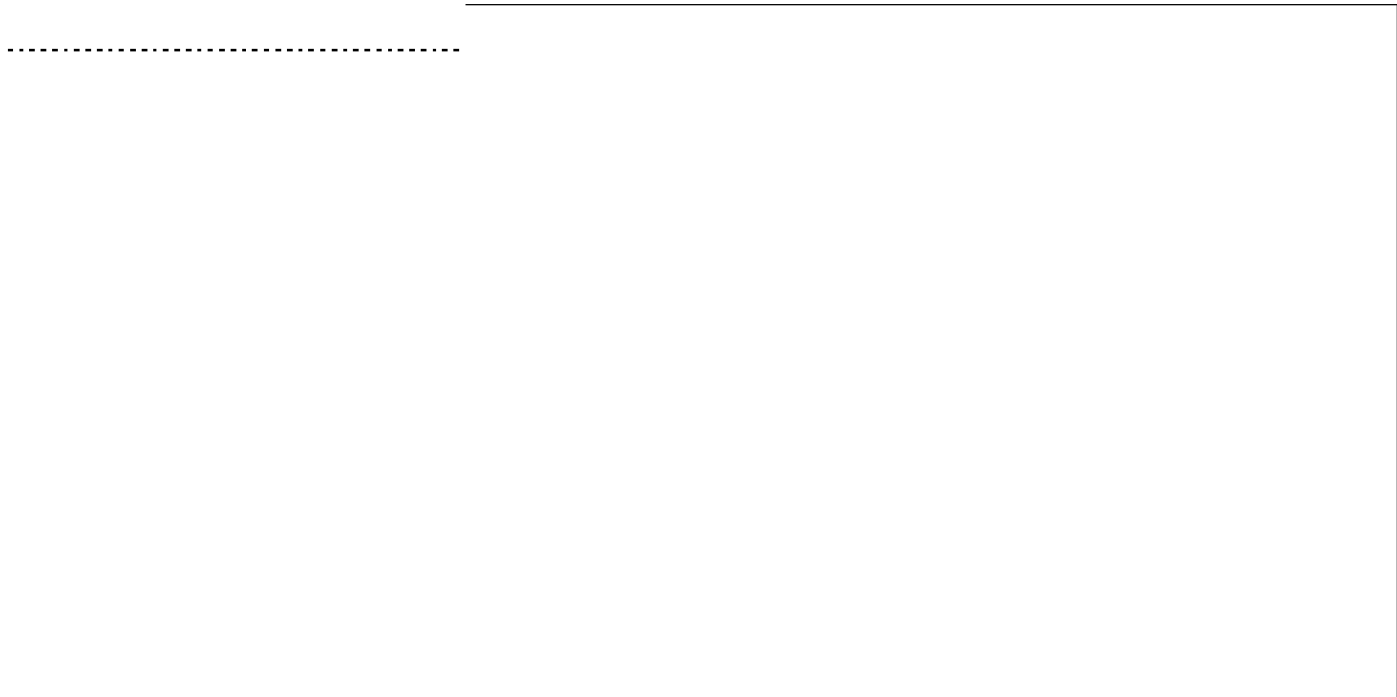

At the same time, the Marshall Foundation which is located at VMI but is not a part of VMI, is giving her an award on the 2nd of June at the Building Museum in Washington. Splendid idea, but this has nothing to do with VMI. These are two different institutions.

The difference in these two awards would be worth explaining.

Best

Pat Lang

Sounds good. The CAP date is feasible -- it's not one of the weeks we are trying to keep clear for potential travel.

The following are speeches I want to give if possible in the next 18 months:

Islamic Center at Oxford--the Kuwaiti FM has asked me every time we talk and I would like to do it but we'd have to coordinate w a trip to Europe and the FM's schedule.

Clinton school/library in Ark:

I've been asked to come to Ark as part of their ongoing Speaker's series and altho I have no specific time in mind, I'd like to do it before 2013.

VMI: I'd still like to do this if we can ever get a date--lets try for early next year

CAP--Neera has asked me to speak at a conference CAP is doing in the Fall in DC. Her preferred date is Oct 12--can I do that?

Econ speech--I have no idea when it will be ready and where I will give it but will do so

See below. Hopefully you can open the photos (the first boxes of Pak mangos have arrived in Chicago). And notice the small request Mary Beth makes on behalf of her two partners in crime...

She is off the the NSC, to take half of Lipton's job. So she's still going to be an asset.

Jake-

Thanks for coming out on Friday. It was great to see you.

I mentioned mangos to you. Our first shipment arrive in the US last Thursday. This is one of the initiatives that the Secretary announced during her October 2009 visit. It's been a major struggle getting the sanitary and phyto-sanitary regimes in place but it's done! This season the price is high and supply is targeted to stores in New York and Texas, but it will go down significantly next year and beyond.

I've attached three photos for you. The design on the boxes is a bit cheesy but I thought RCH would have gotten a kick out of it.
=> The Pakistanis renamed a plane in the PIA fleet for the inaugural trip which was unexpected but a nice touch.

Anyway, I can't tell you how much time I've spent on this and RCH was quit immersed in the specific details of the process as well. He brought it up with Zardari and others to press for action when things got jammed in the bureaucracy. He liked to throw them off by getting into crazy minutia as well as the big strategic issues to show just how much we were involved in.

My two partners in crime who lived and breathed this effort in the field were coerced early on by RCH and all they asked for in return was an autographed picture of Secretary Clinton. Both are huge fans and RCH of course said "no problem, just get this done!" I'm hoping that you might help me fulfill his outstanding promise to them?

The two individuals are: Marc Gilkey who is our regional APHIS rep based out of Embassy New Delhi. He's been SUPERB at keeping USDA focused and a real miracle worker at finding solutions to the internal USG technical regulatory issues. The other is Joe Carroll who just left post but has served as our Agricultural Attaché at Embassy Islamabad for the past 2 plus years. Joe is moving on to Australia next but spent over two years patiently educating the GOP on the details of the SPS issues.

I'm happy to help facilitate in any way and appreciate your help. It'd be nice to close this chapter with these folks getting some well deserved recognition.

Many thanks-

Mary Beth

- no news on big plane but we asked for little plane to pick up in white plains since it will otherwise affect crew rest. Shouldn't be a problem.

- cvc did well on nightly news. PA recorded it and you will get dvd tomorrow morning.

- noras friend said he would aim to get cartoon done tonite. In perfect world, you can give her tomorrow morning before she leaves for ny on 11am shuttle. Otherwise, she can come to house wed to get from you.

- did you tell laurie bernstein at megans party that she should come in to meet with you tomorrow?

fyi - i asked marina last week to pull out your straw hats. Also told monica to go to whitehaven to help get packed. They have packing list as well.

- we still have ashton call pending. Just reminding you. Wendy seemed to think u agreed to make this weekend.

[redacted]

- schedule is fine, no new changes. Planning for a pre-brief on plane. Its hot there, 80s and 90s everywhere. Also potential thunderstorms in liberia and abidjan so u need a raincoat in case u r in rain for inauguration. Unlikely but just in case.

Jake: got your message, but for some reason I'm having trouble responding with hotmail (maybe the 1990s have truly ended).

I am in a meeting with Ban and Muallem at 9:30. I can't miss that. And I'm chairing a meeting with agency heads on the Sahel at 11. So I don't think I'm available just before or after the small state thing (which I'm not attending).

One option would be 8:30 at the Waldorf -- if S is up and available. I'd have to leave by 9:00 to brief the SG on Syria just before the Muallem meeting. And I'd have to cancel Esther Brimmer, who asked to see me at 8:30! (I don't mind cancelling Esther.). Would 8:30 at the Waldorf work?

Hope your travels have been less brutal than they look. I know it has been a while since we spoke of this, but I still think it would be good for you to have an informal setting to talk to some influential new York city writers and opinionators. So, I would propose to host a smallish dinner when your calendar permits in the coming weeks with the following people who I know well enough to trust some level of discretion for an off the record dinner that would allow you to provide an account of some of the highs and even some lows of policy making on Libya , china, Iran, the Arab spring and the Israel Palestinian issue. They are: Eleanor Randolph and carol Giacomo from the New York times editorial board, Richard Cohen of Washington post, David Remnick and Rick Hertzberg from the New Yorker, Leon Wieseltier and Frank Foer from the New Republic, Tina Brown from Newsweek, my wife from CNN and ABC, and maybe one or two others like Tom Brokaw.

The point is not to create news stories, but to ensure when these people deliver their inevitable assessments of your term as Secretary they have an appreciation of some of the difficulties and complexities.

All best, Jamie

Yes, I have  necklace, still need to get gift box. Wanted them to find the second one for you so I could pick up both at once. Also have reached the artist who is thrilled, honored etc. I sent her the moon article for inspiration. Issue will be timing. Usually takes her a few months to order materials, sketch, cut wood etc so can you give  late?

Also  has offered to postpone the party given recent events. I told her to move forward, she just wants to make sure you will come. In fact, she wants to cancel altogether if you dont come.

Can discuss bilats anytime. I gave you latest unga schedule in anticipation of it coming up on calls and have gotten all the call readouts which seemed to have no surprises but I can talk anytime. Donilons office called this morning about bibi bilat and told them its not locked fyi. Israelis still haven't given us time.

I will be in DC Tuesday and Friday. Maybe thurs as well. I can of course come to house.

For Rorrie, you will have 1 or 2 unga meetings (including small states) on oct 1st. Wjc in philly that night. We are confirming if there's a time in afternoon you are both free.

Oscar tells me he's away till tonight. Haven't been able to get any more info out of him. I understood that he cleared with you.

After my calls today, I have more bilats to do. When can you discuss w me?

When will you be in DC next week? Can you come by the house as well as office?

Bill and I need to meet w Rorrie again. Would Monday morning/afternoon Oct 1st work for me (and Bill) for that?

Also, one of the reasons I did not go to NY today is I can't find Oscar(again). Bill told me he was away so I emailed him yesterday morning asking about his plans, but have yet to hear back. What do you know?

Am sending you a link to a CSCC video that juxtaposes Zawahiri talking about the impossibility of peaceful change with scenes of jubilation in Egypt.

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7\_hKqFUaPk4c

The Zawahiri quote (which comes from a statement he made in 2008) is as follows:

“There is no hope to remove the corrupt regimes in Muslim countries except by force, There is no chance to bring about change through peaceful action. Let anyone who disagrees give me a single example.”

It's generated over 55,000 hits in the time it has been up and we are looking for ways to push it out farther.

I think it's really good and the audience seems to agree. Clearly the sort of stuff we need to do in this environment --- short, high energy and to the point. Note that there is no music under the Zawahiri clips since he starts his rant with “there will be no music”. Will keep you posted as we move forward. Let me know what you think.

Dear Hillary,

Abby Ellin from the New York Times will be reaching out to you and Philippe and Huma. The focus of the story is the importance of the Child Mind Institute and the response that I have received from so many supporters in creating the only independent nonprofit institution dedicated to transforming mental health care for the world's children to enable them to reach their full potential. Attached are suggested talking points for you.

With my warmest regards,

Harold

Dear Hillary,

I hope you are taking care of yourself while you are taking care of the world. If you can find the time, I would like your assistance. The New York Times is interested in writing a profile about the Child Mind Institute and me. Are you available to speak with the reporter, Abby Elin, on my behalf? If so, I would like to give someone in your office her contact information to set a time to talk. (Don't forget to tell her what a great dancing couple we are.)

For your convenience, a brief overview of the Child Mind Institute's current work is attached.

Thank you once again. I look forward to hearing from you.

With my warmest regards

Harold

Dear Tony,

I'd love to see or talk to you today. I know you're seeing the President at 10; we could talk before then, and/or get together afterwards. Just let me know what works for you. Thanks for all you're trying to do. H

Here is call sheet. We are connecting him soon.
The Secretary's Call Sheet for
Egyptian Foreign Minister Mohamed Kamel Amr

Purpose of Call: To urge the Egyptian government to take steps to restrain from the use of violence against demonstrators, to restore calm, and to create the conditions for free and fair parliamentary elections.

---

Background:

Egypt: In a speech November 22 on national TV, Field Marshal Tantawi committed to hold parliamentary elections on time (beginning Monday, November 28), to hold presidential elections by June 2012, and appoint a "national salvation government" to replace Prime Minister Sharaf's cabinet. The current cabinet will remain in place until the new government is appointed, and the SCAF will continue to operate as the executive until a president is elected. Protesters in Tahrir Square reacted immediately, chanting "Leave, leave!" Many commented on the speech's defensive tone. There were few indications the demonstrators intended to go home, indicating that at least for now, it was not enough to appease them.

The protests began on November 18, when thousands of demonstrators converged on Tahrir Square to protest the military's rule and the idea that the SCAF is trying to carve out special privileges for the military in Egypt's new constitution through a proposed supra-constitutional principles document. Most political groups participated, including both Islamists and liberal groups. The death toll has reached at least 38, and well over 1,000 have been injured. Elections are still scheduled as planned to begin on Monday, November 28. The recent protests raise significant security and logistical concerns. NDI and IRI are poised to field nearly 170 witnesses (a term the Egyptian government prefers to monitors or observers) over the three phases of the elections. We have engaged with the SCAF on the importance of their observation mission and understand that they will be formally accredited by Egyptian authorities.

B6

Syria: Amr stated November 15 that Egypt will not withdraw its ambassador to Syria. Egypt's embassy in Damascus was not attacked in the recent spate of aggression against diplomatic missions. Following the November 16 suspension of Syria's membership in the Arab League (AL), the SARG rejected the AL's proposal for an observer mission to Syria. Members of AL special committee on Syria are meeting on November 23 to discuss further actions, including sanctions, in preparation for a full Arab League Foreign Ministers meeting tomorrow, November 24.

You have had quite a few days! But bravo on pulling it out. I truly wished I could have been with you on the ground. This is no time to be sending you extra reading, but I have written a piece on women, work-family balance, and how far our society still needs to go for The Atlantic (it is slated to be the cover story for the July-August issue). I think you will like it and will certainly enjoy reading it, as it naturally deals a great deal with my time in DC. I'll send it within the next week. But I want to make sure you are comfortable with the one place that I quote you directly:

“Ten years later, whenever I am introduced at a lecture or a speech, I insist that the person introducing me mention that I have two sons. It seems odd to me to list degrees, awards, positions, and interests and not include the dimension of my life that is most important to me—and that takes an enormous amount of my time. As Secretary Clinton once said in a television interview in Beijing when the interviewer asked her about Chelsea’s upcoming wedding: “That’s my real life.””

I am certain that is what you said, because it struck me so forcefully, but there is no public record. So please let me know via Huma or Cheryl.

Best,

AM

- as you know, Ghanaian president Mills is dead. Not sure if that means we might need to stop in Ghana given how soon your visit is. There is no word on funeral etc.

- also, Johnnie feels strongly about going to Kenya given the 2013 elections. Can be a quick stop but you were amenable to this last time we spoke. Johnnie was recommending dropping Namibia in order to do this. I am leaving Namibia on schedule so you can see what it looks like.

- lastly, Mandela is switching days on us which makes Cape Town quite a leisurely stop. It does tighten up the Joburg/Pretoria schedule but it works out.

I will be in the office tomorrow and Thursday FYI.

I know this wasn't intentional but now that everyone has been looped into the additional stops, posts and press are asking questions. So I'd like to suggest the following.
Pick what you prefer between what we discussed. If you decide you don't want to add any or all of these countries, ideally we pull the plug so the speculation stops. We can also ask Jonathan when he will be in Abuja. Benin will make anything work. Both options are feasible. Option 1 preserves your time in Capetown. You get home the same time.
Option 1: Capetown, Abuja, Accra, Cotonou, Ankara

August 9th

9am depart Cape Town ert Abuja, Nigeria, flight time 6+15 hrs, time change – 1 hour

3pm-6pm Meetings in Abuja

7pm depart Abuja ert Accra, Ghana, flight time 1+30 hrs, time change – 1 hour

7:30pm Arriva Accra and RON

August 10th

9am-12pm Funeral for President Mills

1pm depart Accra ert Cotonou, Benin, flight time 0+50, time change + 1 hour

3-5pm Events in Cotonou

5:30pm Depart Cotonou ert Ankara, flight time 6 hours, time change +2

1am Arrive Ankara and Ron

August 11th

10am-3pm Meetings with PM, FM, Opposition leaders.

4pm Depart Ankara ert AAFB, flight time (with refuel) 13 hours, time change -7

10pm Arrive AAFB

This is the option you asked about last night.

Option 2: Capetown, Cotonou, Abuja, Accra, Turkey

August 8th

9am-2pm PEPFAR, Speech, Ann Curry Interview

3pm depart Cape Town ert Cotonou, Benin, flight time 6+00 hrs, time change – 1 hour

8pm Arrive Cotonou and RON

August 9th

9am-11am Events in Cotonou

12pm Depart Cotonou ert Abuja, Nigeria, flight time 1+15 hrs, no time change

1:30-4:30pm Meetings in Abuja

5pm Depart Abuja ert Accra, Ghana, flight time 1+30 hrs, time change – 1 hour

5:30pm Arrive Accra and RON

August 10th

9am-12pm Funeral for President Mills

1pm Depart ert Ankara, flight time 6 hours, time change +3

10pm Arrive Ankara and RON

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 27, 2011

President Obama Statement on the Passing of Richard Estrada Chavez

Michelle and I were saddened to learn of the passing of Richard Estrada Chavez yesterday. Richard spent his life in the service of others alongside his brother Cesar and his wife, Dolores Huerta, co-founders of the United Farm Workers. It was Richard who designed the UFW's iconic eagle, a symbol of hope that has helped carry the struggle for the rights of farm workers forward for almost five decades.

Throughout his years of service, Richard fought for basic labor rights but also worked to improve the quality of life for countless farm workers. And beyond his work, Richard was a family man. I was honored to have Richard visit the Oval Office last year on Cesar Chavez Day with other family members, and will never forget the stories they shared. Richard understood that the struggle for a more perfect union and a better life for all America's workers didn't end with any particular victory or defeat, but instead required a commitment to getting up every single day to keep at it.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Richard's family and loved ones. We take comfort in knowing that the work he was passionate about will be continued by all he helped to inspire.

We are moving the bilateral now to a room with windows and moving up the press avail so give you more breathing room.

We traditionally do press avails at our ministerials so kept with that pattern esp since we are hosting -- taking three questions.

The plan is to do the Dai brief at your dining room table.

We have reached out to Amr, waiting to hear back.

Pls find a place w natural light for this bilat.

Also, why am I doing a press avail and could we do brief in car from CEO forum and move up time so I could have a little breathing room around the Dai brief? How many questions from press? Where is Dai brief?

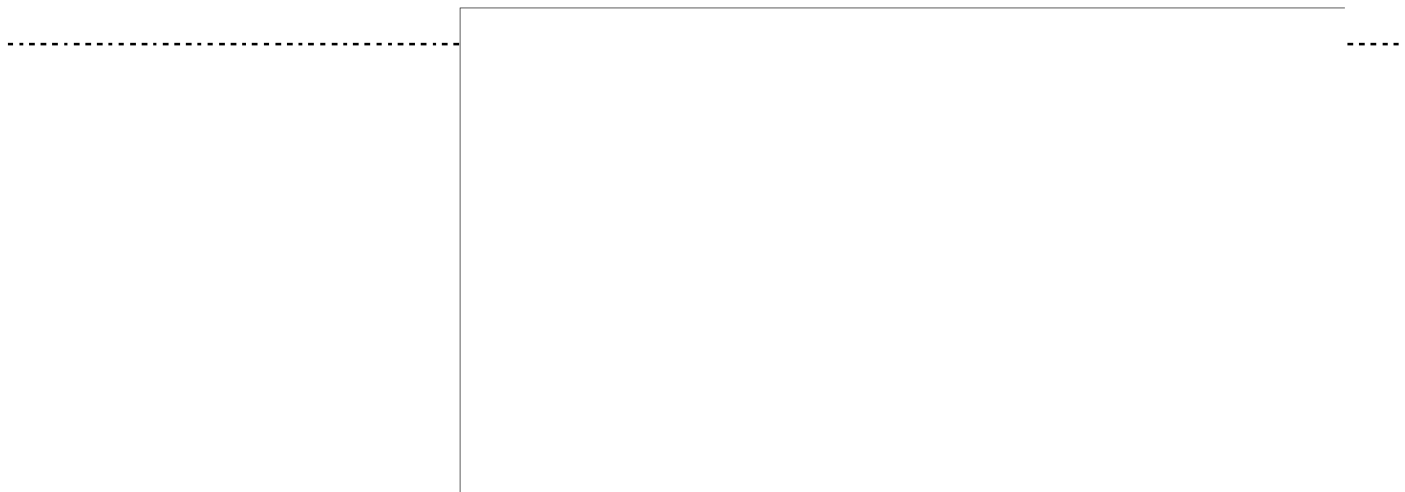

Did we schedule phone call to Amr?

What's my schedule tomorrow?

Subject: Planning

I know this wasn't intentional but now that everyone has been looped into the additional stops, posts and press are asking questions. So I'd like to suggest the following.
Pick what you prefer between what we discussed. If you decide you don't want to add any or all of these countries, ideally we pull the plug so the speculation stops. We can also ask Jonathan when he will be in Abuja. Benin will make anything work. Both options are feasible. Option 1 preserves your time in Capetown. You get home the same time.
Option 1: Capetown, Abuja, Accra, Cotonou, Ankara

August 9th

9am depart Cape Town ert Abuja, Nigeria, flight time 6+15 hrs, time change – 1 hour

3pm-6pm Meetings in Abuja

7pm depart Abuja ert Accra, Ghana, flight time 1+30 hrs, time change – 1 hour

7:30pm Arriva Accra and RON

August 10th

9am-12pm Funeral for President Mills

1pm depart Accra ert Cotonou, Benin, flight time 0+50, time change + 1 hour

3-5pm Events in Cotonou

5:30pm Depart Cotonou ert Ankara, flight time 6 hours, time change +2

1am Arrive Ankara and Ron

August 11th

10am-3pm Meetings with PM, FM, Opposition leaders.

4pm Depart Ankara ert AAFB, flight time (with refuel) 13 hours, time change -7

10pm Arrive AAFB

This is the option you asked about last night.

Option 2: Capetown, Cotonou, Abuja, Accra, Turkey

August 8th

9am-2pm PEPFAR, Speech, Ann Curry Interview

3pm depart Cape Town ert Cotonou, Benin, flight time 6+00 hrs, time change - 1 hour

8pm Arrive Cotonou and RON

August 9th

9am-11am Events in Cotonou

12pm Depart Cotonou ert Abuja, Nigeria, flight time 1+15 hrs, no time change

1:30-4:30pm Meetings in Abuja

5pm Depart Abuja ert Accra, Ghana, flight time 1+30 hrs, time change - 1 hour

5:30pm Arrive Accra and RON

August 10th

9am-12pm Funeral for President Mills

1pm Depart ert Ankara, flight time 6 hours, time change +3

10pm Arrive Ankara and RON

August 11th

10am-3pm Meetings with PM, FM, Opposition leaders.

4pm Depart Ankara ert AAFB, flight time (with refuel) 13 hours, time change -7

10pm Arrive AAFB

Yes, I tried calling you. Just talked to our pilots again.

The planes start evacuating from Andrews Sunday afternoon. They are asking us to leave around 5pm. Although potus and wjc will likely leave Sunday night. Biden and flotus also leaving so we want to coordinate times with them. They could leave from ny later cause weather isn't as bad here. Wish they told us earlier and you could have packed before leaving. Will get back to you on time after talking to biden/flotus people.

Think we should do our algeria schedule Monday since Bosnia was jammed anyway.

Hello

The current forecast for Andrews is for the winds to be "out of limits" starting the "Sunday evening" and lasting until early Wednesday.

The current hurricane track forecast has New York being effected for the same approximate time.

The 89th plans to evac all airplanes Sunday afternoon.

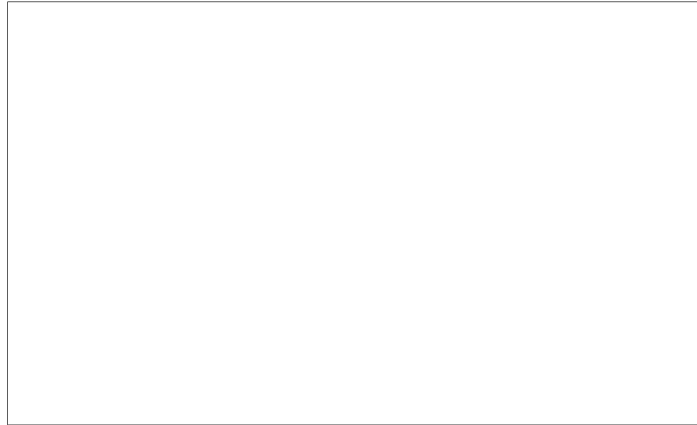

For your travel, the primary should plan to depart New York and/or Andrews NLT 1700 Sunday. Options include:

- ADW - OCONUS on Sunday
- Different CONUS location (South and/or West of DC) - Monday departure

The Secretary's Call Sheet for

French FM Laurent Fabius [fah-byoos]

Friday, January 11, 2013

(SBU) Purpose of Call: Foreign Minister Fabius has requested to speak with you to discuss the situation in Mali.

B5

B5

(SBU) Farewell: Laurent, I also wanted to take a moment to thank you for your support during my tenure. Thank you for your personal friendship as well as the steadfast support of France on Syria, Iran, Libya, Mali and a multitude of other challenges. Working together as friends and as partners, we have accomplished a great deal, and I am certain my successor will value greatly our relationship with France. It has been a great pleasure working with you.

(SBU) Background: The military and security situation in Mali has deteriorated sharply in the last 24 hours. The French believe it is crucial not to allow northern rebel groups to proceed south of Mopti in central Mali. Today, the French air force carried out an air strike in Mali in support of Malian government forces trying to push back the rebels. On December 20, the UNSC adopted Resolution 2085 to authorize AFISMA to support Malian authorities to recover areas in northern Mali that are under the control of terrorists, extremists, and armed groups. Resolution 2085 also urged Malian transitional authorities to finalize a roadmap to fully restore constitutional order and national unity, and establish a credible framework for negotiations with all parties in northern Mali who have cut off ties to terrorist organizations.

(SBU) The EU authorized a mission on December 10 to provide 250-400 EU trainers to train the MDSF; training likely will begin in March, followed by military action in northern Mali around September. The EU has already pledged funding, but more resources are needed. The EU has said that it will not provide equipment for the MDSF. France is demarching many capitals around the world to ask for equipment, supplies, and/or infrastructure support (and possibly logistics and salaries) for the MDSF.

(SBU) Georges Ibrahim Abdallah was sentenced to life in prison in 1987 for his involvement in the 1982 murders of U.S. military attaché Charles Ray and Israeli diplomat Yakov Barsimentov in Paris, as well as for the 1984 attempted murder of the U.S. Consul General in Strasbourg, Robert Homme. A former leader of the Marxist-Leninist guerilla group Lebanese Armed Revolutionary Factions, Abdallah is reputedly one of the longest-serving prisoners in Western Europe. He became eligible for release in 1999, but seven successive appeals were consistently denied on the grounds he has shown no remorse for his crime and likely will resume his revolutionary struggle if released and deported to Lebanon. Although the French Government has no legal authority to overturn the Court of Appeal's January 10 decision, we hope French officials might find another basis to challenge the decision's legality.

In about 20 minutes I will leave a pouch with two binders:

- the supplemental briefing is to replace the binder that cheryl gave to you this morning for prep.
- the supplemental reference binder includes additional background materials and is the first time you are seeing it.

Later this evening, Maria will send to you a pouch which will include a new draft of hearing testimony for your review and an action memo from NEA that they would like approval for over the weekend (a cable to Algerian PM Sellal).

i will close loop with Sid.

i am in touch with kati and gahl almost daily and they know the situation so this is factually incorrect esp since they wanted it on the 13th, and we offered the 15th.

they are anxious to send out invitations but as you know, we dont have a NATO schedule yet which means we cannot lock time. they have a commitment and a date. they will get a time as soon as we can get it for them. i encouraged them to email save the dates with the date and send follow up info as soon as they have it.

Hrc, you should not be worrying about this.

Hillary: The American Academy has contacted me, confused about what's happening with your prospective participation in the Holbrooke memorial there on April 15th. They tell me they still don't have a commitment from your people at State and are tearing their hair out. Can someone sort this out and make it happen? Thanks. Sid

I know there is much uproar about the Quran burnings. But in Saudi, the only proper conservative way to safely dispose of Gods name or book is to burn it. You can't bury it or put it in water because you can't risk someone "stepping" on it. We use to tear off sheets of paper with holy words written on them and burn them in our kitchen. The crime here is that non-Muslims were doing it....

Pls pass on to Goodwin/Ann:

Lugar said the R caucus had decided to oppose cloture and he was sorry but felt obliged to go along. I told him that based on my info, 4 Rs (Snowe, Collins, Murk and Brown) were voting for cloture, and I asked if that would give him the company he needed to vote w them? He said he didn't know about them and was surprised to hear that and would look into that. Even w that, however, he did not commit.
